FAREWELL TO CLASS OF 1934~35

To the Graduating Class of 1935:
Another school year is drawing to a close and soon you will be leaving Eastwood High School to enter various fields of activity. It is my privilege at this time to wish you the best of success in your future work. At the same time I fully realize that we are passing through troublous times and that, on account of the economic chaos existent in the world today, the outlook for students leaving high school is not a bright one. You will therefore need courage to face your difficulties and perseverance to overcome them. You have the world before you: you have youth and, I hope, ambition. It has been said that the best equipment that can be given to a young person for the journey through life is, "self-reliance, a goal to aim at, and a jealousy for the truth at all costs which is incorruptible."

A new era in the economic life of the nation is dawning and today more than ever is specialized training essential to success. In any walk of life if you are to rise above the level of the "hewer of wood" and the "drawer of water" it will be necessary for you to specialize. I sincerely trust that the training you have received during your high school course may help you in your work and that it may, in some measure, enable you to become useful members of society.

In conclusion, may you, one and all, in the years to come, look back with satisfaction to your student days at Eastwood and be assured that your teachers will, at all times, be happy to know of your success. In ploughman phrase, "God send you speed,"
Still daily to grow wiser,
And may you better reck the rede,
Than ever did th' adviser!
ALFRED G. SIM,
Hon. Pres. Class.

THE HONOR ROLL

Twenty-eight pupils at Eastwood this term succeeded in obtaining an average of 75 per cent at both Christmas and Easter and thus received the academic pin awards. Eleven of these twenty-eight come from Room 17 alone. Mr. Hyde stated that that was the highest average ever attained by any room in the history of Eastwood High. Special note should be made of Ruth Hedges and Ruth Lyons, the Grade XII academic pin winners. The former boasts two pins and the latter three. Six pins were taken by Grade IX, twelve by Grade X, eight by Grade XI and two by Grade XII. Following is the list of academic pin winners:

- Room 11—Jean Parker.
- Room 12—Peter Ponich.
- Room 14—Elsie Child, Betty Ross, Joan White, Ruth King.
- Room 17—Stanley Cameron, Georgina Campbell, Amelia Chabon, Ada Crockett, Charlie Giles, Joan Gwynne, Ethel Lommel, Norman McClary, Bob Robertson, Sylvia Smith, Alan Welsh.
- Room 20—Edward Bell, Murray Bolton, Blair Fulton, Charlie Gogek, Leonard Loveseth, Dennis Quinlan, Isobel Williamson, Morris Zaslow.
- Room 21—Ruth Hedges, Ruth Lyons.
- Room 25—Margaret Skivey.

INQUIRING REPORTER

For the last edition of the paper, the Reporter asks the members of the Executive: "How did you enjoy your year's work on the executive and do you consider the year has been a successful one?"

1. Jack Grimble, President—"I thoroughly enjoyed working on the Executive, even though it took a great deal of time. Naturally I am in a difficult place as far as the second part of your question is concerned, but I frankly do believe that, all in all, Eastwood has had an enjoyable year."

2. Bob Montgomery, Vice-President—"I think I can truthfully say I have enjoyed this year on the Students' Executive. There has been some criticism of its lack in supplying sufficient amusement. It must be remembered that this is an institution of learning and that we are limited by certain rules and conventions. Part of this criticism, I think, can be placed upon room representatives, who are conspicuous by their absence, and who did not have many suggestions to make."

3. Dave Larmour, Secretary: "I truly had a great time, even though I don't know one thing more about writing minutes than I knew before. As to your second question, I believe that the success of any school executive lies in their ability to satisfy, and I believe also that, to a great extent, we have accomplished just that."

4. Bill Younie, Treasurer—"Certainly, I enjoyed the work and the experience. Financially this year has been a mediocre success, but with increased activities next year I believe it could reach greater heights."

5. Clydie Douglas, Girls' Sport Rep—"I have always enjoyed working for the school and I enjoyed working for it on the executive. Girls' sports were, however, sadly misrepresented, mainly, I believe, because of the complete lack of facilities."

6. Dave Mitchell, Boys' Sport Rep—"I certainly did enjoy the work. As you probably know, the boys' sport was highly successful as far as representation was concerned. We have many more active participants this year than last. Possibly this increased enrolment was due to the lifting of the academic requirements for sport participation."

EASTWOOD GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is now relaxing after having practised for the Festival feverishly for some time. Victoria High took the shield in both competitions and Westmount came second in both. Eastwood was third in each. Here's hoping we do better the next time. We extend hearty congratulations to both Victoria and Westmount. We also wish to thank Mr. Leaver for all the time he has spent on us this year, to say nothing of the patience. The Glee Club is expecting to go on a hike as soon as the "weatherman" permits us. In conclusion, I would like to say that we have had a happy year, even if not so successful in the Festival and that we hope the Eastwood Glee Club may continue to flourish in the years to come.—M.H.K.

THE FESTIVAL

If the Glee Club was not successful in the Festival, other students and ex-students of Eastwood came away with honors. Kay Mickie came second in one entry but we are sorry she was disqualified for not singing in the right key—but that is a mere detail and detracts nothing from the good quality and clear tone of her voice.

Marian Bowcott, a former student of Eastwood, came first in the class she entered. Congratulations, Marion, and still more success in the future. Kathleen Clarke—well you all remember her lovely voice at one of this year's "Lits." Kathleen was a winner with 166 points to her credit; again congratulations are in order.

Allan Collins came third. Allan needs no introduction for he, too, is well known at our "Lits." Congratulations to all of them and in the years to come may they be just as successful.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The school activities of the year 1934-35 began with the election of the Students' Union Executive. The Executive with the representatives from each room with the able advice of Miss Munro worked to the best of their ability to make the year a banner one.

The first responsibility which faced them was that of obtaining revenue to operate the school's activities, such as various sports organizations in the school, academic pins and athletic "E's," etc. This was obtained through the Students' Union fees, skating party and concert.

This year, we think the Dramatic Club and the newspaper should be highly recommended on their year's work, as both have given the students a considerable amount of enjoyment as well as for their marked improvement during the past year.

The Literary Society, this year, has attempted to improve the standard of the "Lits." during the past year. They introduced for the first time the "Alumnae Lit.," which brought to us members of the alumnae, who provided the entertainment. Also the Dramatic Club assisted the Literary Society in presenting three very fine plays which were well received by the students.

On retiring we wish to take this opportunity of extending our sincere thanks for the co-operation and support we have received from the students and staff during the past year. We sincerely wish that the new executive of 1935-36 have the greatest success in their efforts on behalf of Eastwood High School.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Baseball and basketball are in full swing. Drill periods are spent outside, the weather permitting, and the enthusiastic shouts of the girls ring over the playground. The tennis courts are ready at last, and from all accounts will greatly be made use of. They, like everything else this year, have been handicapped by the weather. From now on let the sun shine and the rain stay away so Eastwood can make use of the courts.

THE SENIOR DANCE

On May 3rd at the I.O.O.F. Hall, Eastwood held her Senior School Dance. Its success is due to the hard work of the dance committee, viz., Miss Carswell, Irene Carson and Jack Grimble. The charming patronesses were Mrs. E. E. Hyde, Mrs. H. C. Clarke and Miss M. Gimby. The gowns of New York and Gay Paree have nothing on the ones worn by the girls at the dance. The music was excellent, Val Wells greatly adding to the pleasure by singing several of the numbers. Soft drinks were sold in one corner of the hall and seemed to be well patronized. A number of ex-Eastwoodites were present and believe it or not they still look the same. Gradually we danced the night away and "Home, Sweet Home" was played all too soon for everybody.

LOCAL BOY MAKES GOOD

Yes, you are probably wondering what has become of him and for what reason you have not seen him about the halls lately. Well, one of Eastwood's stars has left Edmonton to return to Finland where he hopes to get a job. While here he not only took an academic pin but performed on the school hockey team. Apart from the fact he had to sit opposite Ted Bell in R. 20 this year we trust and hope he has enjoyed being here as much as we have enjoyed knowing him. Oh, yes! and his name—Andy Laine.

The Year In Review

The past year has been one of unusual difficulty. The business depression has continued with all its unfortunate results. Many boys and girls who have finished school are unable to find jobs. For reasons of economy eight days were taken out of the school year.

In spite of these facts the work of the year presents many encouraging features. Attendance and punctuality have been satisfactory. The relationships between teachers and pupils have never been more friendly during the nine years of the existence of Eastwood High School. As I look back over the year it seems to me that parents and teachers have evidenced an increasing concern as to the effect of our school work on individual pupils. This interest has been most helpful and promises well for the future; for it is the basis upon which any wise reforms or improvements must be built. The registration this year is larger than ever. The resulting congestion would have made successful work impossible had not pupils and teachers shown a true community spirit of mutual consideration and co-operation.

Activities outside the classroom have faced the same difficulty with notable success. Mr. Leaver's Glee Club, the chess tournament and the ping pong contests have added interest and variety to school life. House leagues in football, hockey and baseball arouse keen interest on the part of players, and school English is occasionally diversified by the caustic or encouraging comments of spectators. Members of the school orchestra and the Dramatic Club have enjoyed their collective activities; and through their performances at the Literary Society meetings have given keen pleasure to their fellow students. The high school owes a vote of thanks to Mr. Skitch and the public school teachers for their kindly co-operation and forbearance in connection with the dramatic and orchestra practices.

The final examinations are just ahead and all school activities are preparing to round out the year. Members of the senior class are planning and wondering about the future. During the past four years your teachers have been trying to help you to think for yourselves. We hope that as you leave Eastwood you will carry with you courage to meet life's successes as well as its disappointments; modesty to keep your minds unprejudiced; and insight to recognize truth. My own wish for you is that you may achieve confidence in yourselves and in each other; and that through its varying experiences life may bring to you an increasing faith in what an old teacher of mine once called "the economy of the Eternal."

BOYS' SPORTS

Since the last edition of the paper great things have been happening in the sports world.

Don Wallace walloped Benny Clarke 21-12, 21-12, 21-12, 21-12 in Eastwood's first ping pong tourney, whilst Charlie Farmilo emerged victorious in the chess competition.

"Play ball!" When this cry rings through the baseball diamond we will find Mr. McCoy's hardball team all lined up ready to try and retain the cup they have held for the past two years. There's a mighty fine team trying out this year, but there is still room for any who wish to try out.

The soccer team coached by Mr. Greenlees is going in great style. On May 8 they succeeded in humbling Victoria's crew by the score of 2-0. Members of the team are: D. Mitchell, A. Van Deelan, J. Grimbale, D. Stanley, E. Tomick, A. Ryter, A. Ainslie, W. Hales, R. Ferrier, W. Orr, J. Donnelly, K. Meikljohn. J. Sproule, F. Ashbough, A. McCann and Doug Mitchell. Bill Orr got both the goals.

It was decided to start an inter-school softball league this year and Mr. Powell has consented to coach the team so we can expect great things.

A decision has not been made regarding tennis yet, but there will be definite news in the near future.

In the house league football games played to date Ainslie beat Ferguson 9-0, and Ferrier took Tomik 2-0.

A softball league has been formed with three teams captained by Blackburn, Walker and B. Farmilo.

In the first game Blackburn beat Farmilo by a 13-4 score. This league has met with much enthusiastic support.

Bob Ferrier, Ed Wilson and Wally Brunelle were chosen captains for the hardball house league teams and adopted the names Cardinals, Giants and Tigers respectively. The Giants beat the Cardinals 7-5 and the Tigers were walloped 15-5 by the Cards.

Altogether it looks like a snappy, successful season in the sports world.

TELL AUNT MARTHA

Dear Auntie:

Is it because the final exams are so close or because I saw a modern Venus going down the avenue, that the birdies sing louder, the buttercups smell sweeter and the loving teachers grow kinder? Why! I am a new man! Please tell me what it is.

Lovingly yours,

Mr. Jas. Ferguson.

My Dear James,

You sap, you're in love.

Martha.

Dear Aunt Martha,

I am not appealing to you this time to mend a broken heart. The fact is, however, I have a puzzling question which appears to be too deep for my biology teacher. The question is: What does a tree look like when nobody is looking at it?

Yours expectingly,

E. S.

Dearest,

As it would take pages to answer this question, I suggest you interview me personally. My advice now is, if the biology class effects you like that take a visit to the "Drink."

Martha.

Dear Martha,

Say, can she sing or can she sing? She's a girl after my own heart. I certainly could go for her in a big way. Boy, oh boy!

Yours ever,

Wayne Hawkey.

Dear Wayne,

Please come to earth. Do you realize that you didn't tell me what was troubling you. Nevertheless, from the words you write, I conclude that you have caught a little bit of that disease J. Ferguson has. I recommend Carter's Little Liver Pills. I hear they are effective.

Martha.

ALUMNAE AT VARSITY

Chet Lambertson—3rd year Arts; composer of the Varsity song; also of Jimmy, Chet and Russ trio fame; secretary of the Alumni.

Dave Adams—3rd year Honors History; a glutton for work—and Velma Miller.

John Kelly, B.Sc.—3rd year Medicine; his interest sometimes strays to nurses.

Jack Singer, B.Sc.—2nd year Medicine; Ho! hum! Let's go to a show.

Steve Parlee, B.Sc.—3rd year Medicine; still going strong on the midnight oil.

Fred Bainbridge—graduating in Chemical Engineering; a good friend and a good head.

Don Cameron, B.A.—Graduating in School of Education; the inevitable pipe, a smile and a real man's handshake.

Howard Barker—Engineering; strong and silent, but is right there every time.

Gay Brink—Engineering; ditto above.

Ralph Collins—Graduating in Honors English; a brilliant student, debater and scholarship winner.

Marshall Kulka—Graduating in Honors Chemistry; another Eastwood lad who has made good.

Garnet Badger—3rd year Medicine; a hard worker but—oh—those Saturday nights.

Bob Byron, B.Sc.—Graduating in School of Education; a level-headed and versatile student.

Horace Jacobs—Graduating in Arts; a year in Paris has made Horace a new man with new ideas.

George Ross—Graduating in Arts; an avid reader and a whizz at English.

Henry Ward—3rd year Arts; ex-president of the Alumni; former president of the Eastwood Lit.; likes macaroons.

John Sorochan—Theology; still a real gymnast on the mouth organ.

Taylor Evans—2nd year Honors Chemistry; little Taylor is becoming quite a man.

Bill Pearson—3rd year Arts; still has the unhappy knack of making ghastly odors with his chemicals.

Cecil Simpson—Engineering; a lad who is developing a real vocabulary.

Matt Davis—2nd year Arts and Law; Matt participated in provincial debates; a polished and convincing speaker.

George Robertson—3rd year Modern Languages; a serious student who is going strong.

Gordon Bell—3rd year Arts and Medicine; following in father's footsteps and keeping up the tribal traditions.

Nick Nekoliczuk—3rd year Agriculture; knows his stuff but keeps it secret.

Maurice Yoachim—4th year Medicine; one of these strong, silent men.

George Anderson—Commerce; following in the footsteps of little brother Bill, and what steps.

Oren Baker—1st year Medicine; likes chemistry and house dances.

Eric Robinson—Engineering; oh those gals they just won't leave Eric alone.

Cecil Tredger—Arts and Medicine; pal of Matt Davis, but a brainy chap in his own right.

Ted Donald—Graduating in Medicine; first president of Eastwood's Literary Society.

Alan Bell—Commerce; takes his hockey much too seriously, but otherwise he's not dangerous.

Peggy Benson—Household Economics; you ought to try her macaroons; she feeds her men but keeps them guessing.

Velma Miller—Graduating in School of Education; Velma and Dave are still just like that. You'd like Velma for a school-marm.

Janet Watson—Arts and Law; last year's editor of the Gazette and still helps out.

Isabel Stanley—Nursing; that same sweet way and same shy smile.

Peggy Shaw—Arts; with a mind in view to teaching.

Augusta Evans—Nursing; one of the Evans girls; she has a way with the Meds.

Charlotte Colwill—Arts; definite interests in a graduating chemist.

Phyllis Mullen—Honors Mathematics; a swimming expert; when Phyllis sprints by even the sharks hang their heads in humiliation.

SEEN AND HEARD

Josie Shaw was seen to hit a "homer" tother day and we might add heard to, also.

We would like to have heard Lily Christenson while under the torture of the permanent waving machine.

We hear Art Clough puts his hair in rags every night. Say, how long have you been holding out on us anyway?

Did you see the flashy diamond Peter Kowpak wears? Now who can he be saving it up for?

Now who can have put the ball through the window in Room 18? Boy, have they got a hefty pitch.

Rugby season has started. Can that account for the battered warriors such as Billy Orr, John Macdonald and Brick Younie?

Can Douglas Roy's favorite song be "Put me among the girls?" From what we saw at the Lit. we are forced to draw that conclusion.

And at the dance we heard Dave Larmour lamenting on how many times he got his pant cuffs stepped into by ???s high heels.

FIRST RATE LIT

On May 10th the High School enjoyed one of the most successful "Lits." of the term. Its success lay in the fact that it was both varied and unusual. A troop of six girls under the tuition of Nora Rankin did a tap dance. Vocal solos were given by Gwen MacArthur, Jeanette Paul and Douglas Roy. Cassie Mazurek and Vera Sluzar did a Russian dance. The Glee Club sang two of their Festival songs. Laura Anderson gave a piano solo and Donald Warawa an harmonica solo. The highlights of the program were two unique features: a cowboy orchestra headed and vocally assisted by Marlais Davies which very nearly brought the roof down and was followed by a hilarious skit on "Farmer's Program," directed by Dave Larmour and Marcus Bomerlan.

An enjoyable dance was held in the school after the "Lit."

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, in order to get information which might help in forming its future policy, called for expressions of student opinion on the success of its work in the past year by sponsoring a 'Popularity Contest.'

There were three things to be voted on, viz.:

1. The most popular play;
2. The best performance—girl;
3. The best performance—boy.

Any other comments as to improvements could be made and any criticism was allowed also. From Friday, May 3rd, at 9:00 a.m., to Thursday, May 9th, at 4:00 p.m., the ballot box in the assembly hall stood open and received the students' ballots.

Friday noon saw the ballot box opened in Room 13 by the official scrutineer, Mr. McGuire. The votes were counted in 45 minutes and spoiled ballots with various wise-cracks rejected. The results were as follows:

Most popular play: "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

Best performance: Girl, Janet Paul, Boy, Wallace Brunelle.

Although no prizes were awarded, it is counted sufficient honor to be chosen in a school of Eastwood's size as the best actor or actress.

The Dramatic Club wishes to thank all those who so courteously aided the club by sending in their frank opinions.

Louise Bomerland.

THE ORCHESTRA

Owing to the fact that the school year is drawing to a close, the orchestra is gradually diminishing in size. However, the past two months have been eventful ones.

In April we broadcasted a half-hour programme over CFRN. Following the broadcast Miss Carswell invited us to her home, where we played a very hilarious game of "Cootie."

At the Teachers' Convention, held Easter week, a mass orchestra supplied two musical selections and Eastwood was well represented in this.

One of our members has risen to the position of conductor. Under the baton of Duncan Blackie, famed drummer of Eastwood, a small orchestra won first place in the Boys' and Girls' Fair and secured as their prize a gallon of ice-cream.

As a reward for all our hard labor, we were royally entertained by Mrs. Blackie and Mrs. Brown at the home of the former. This will long be remembered as an enjoyable party and was one of the crowning events of the season.

Altogether, it has been a successful year and we all are grateful to Miss Carswell for the keen interest she has taken in the orchestra and the many good times she has given us. Beth Empey.

EDITORIAL

In a very short time the exams. will be over and the term concluded. From then on school will be but a memory to those who pass out into the work-a-day world and to those who leave us for seats of higher learning. But regardless of what their vocation may be tomorrow, we hope that their memories of Eastwood will always be pleasant ones.

Is our school lacking in school spirit and school initiative? This accusation has often been made against us but a brief sketch of the past year's activities certainly shows the opposite to be the case. Our sports are varied and never lack hearty support. Just at present the consecutive wins of both our baseball and football teams demonstrate Eastwood's potent strength. Facts and figures show our academic achievements as at the top of the list. And finally, the excellent talent, so enthusiastically received at the last Lit., convinces us that our literary and elocutionary attainments are first rate. So let us all, those who are leaving and those intending to return feel that our school is a school of which we may well be proud and which deserves much credit.

However, before closing the office of the Gazette and hanging up the "Out of Town" sign, we would like to say one thing more. As the official paper of Eastwood our material has been, as is natural, subject to a certain amount of censoring. In this way everything deemed unfit by either the paper staff or teaching staff was eliminated. We can safely say, in spite of this, that at no time have we ceased to be the vox populi, or have we ever refused to print anything which would improve the edition. Those "cracks" fired at us at different times didn't go unheeded although we would have appreciated some constructive criticism more. The help given by Ernie Shortliffe and Alf Farmilo to the editorial work, and the help given so freely by Ted Wilson and Doug Mitchell to Blair Fulton and Alfred Ryter in soliciting advertising was most heartily appreciated.

Last year I asked her to be my wife and she gave me a decidedly negative reply, so to get even I married her mother. Then my father married the girl.

When I married the girl's mother, the girl became my daughter, and my father married my daughter, so he became my son. When my father married my daughter she became my mother. If my father is my son and my daughter is my mother, who am I?

My mother's mother is my wife and must be my grandmother, and being my grandmother's husband, I must be my own grandfather. And there you are.

BRIGHT BITS

Can you imagine a school with 500 absent? You could if you belonged to Wellington High School, Kansas, where an epidemic of measles broke out recently. Those who wanted to study had never a distraction, and those who didn't want to, had all the room they wished to play around in. And did the teachers like it? Just think, only one-half of the pupils to watch. And it was a spooky place for a while with everybody looking for measles signs on your nose and neck.—Crimson Rambler, Wellington.

The problems that a player who is a sporting editor has to face on returning from an unsuccessful series of games:

If I tell the truth, the readers think it is an alibi.

If I say they were too good for us, the rest of the players and the coach jump on me.

If I don't say anything, they all think I am evading the issue.

So what?

—Erskine Hi-Lights.

BOYS AND GIRLS FAIR . .

The Twelfth Annual Boys' and Girls' Fair was held from Wednesday, April 24th to Saturday, April 27th. A number of Eastwood students took part in the work either as class directors or competitors, and many were the felt banners carried away by members of our school. Class directors from Eastwood were Doris Grierson, Stuart Blackie, Beth Empey, Don Stanley, Eileen Broadbent. We just wish we had room to mention the list of prizewinners from Eastwood to show you how well we have done.

There were a particularly large number of entries in the Art class this year at which much good work was shown. The entries in Cooking, Mechanics and Photography are also worthy of note.

May there be many more fairs and many more Eastwoodites to keep up the high standard of work shown this year.

WE WONDER

What did Eileen Broadbent find in Brick Younie's pocket?

What would Wrigley's Chewing Gum Co. do if Kate Kozak decided to give her jaws a rest?

When, where and how did Leslie Wedman learn to "make eyes?" Correspondence school?

Is it true that one of our teachers got his new spring suit at a "Clarence" sale?

What did those three girls think when they saw Twit Ferguson hoisting up the clothes-line laden with the snow-white Monday wash?

Does Lindsay Millar really like riding a bicycle or does he do it to keep D— D— company?

A pool of water one day collected outside the Room 17 door. Is that because the "brainy" students within are all wet? Or maybe that was the "pool of youth," because Bruce Ward was on his knees beside it and he was either lapping it up with his tongue or slapping it up with a mop.

OUR GARDEN

The flowers that bloom in the Spring, tra la,
Have nothing on Room Twenty-One;
We have blossoms that blow in the Winter's snow,
From Fall till the Summer is done.

(But I have forgotten, no seasons divide us
For June is so constant, she's always beside us.)

We've a Rose that can blush a delicate pink,
Her petals don't fall, or wither, or shrink;
No thorns on our Rose, you will find them on Holly,
Such prickly fun, so wholesome and jolly.

A Daisy we have, wee tipped and gay;
Though small to the view, she brightens the day;
With crimson aglow, she is blossoming size,
Take note of the sparkle of dew in her eyes.

A Hazel we have that shoots near the Rose,
So slender in form, in beauty she grows;
When the Summer is over, and Fall's drawing near,
Then Hazel is crowned, the Queen of the Year.

At the edge of our plot, the Hedges arise,
A shade for the Lyons to spring a surprise;
And in the green shadow, the Jessie-mine blows,
Night scented and sweet, as everyone knows.

Our Glad-is abloom, a real classic gem,
She wears a rich purple, ten blooms to the stem.
And why should we not have a garden in flower,
There's Tillie to till it, for hour after hour;
Its Grace and its Beauty, for Lorne we are never,
'Tis L'Amour that keeps us from getting too clever.

And so we now come to the end of our Storie,
May the flowers of our room never fade in their glory.
